

Discipline For Young Disciples — Part 2

Big Idea: As a parent I discipline my child with _____ and _____; addressing their _____ matters more than controlling their _____.

(Hebrews 12:4-11)

Discipline is instruction, training, correction and punishment that is motivated by love for the good of the child.

1) I need to discipline with _____ heart in mind

(James 4:1; James 3:16)

4 Types of Undisciplined Parents

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

2) I need to discipline with _____ heart in mind

(Mark 7:21-23)

Good Discipline is:

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Application:

- What type of undisciplined parent have you been? Over what parenting issues do you need to repent of and trust the grace of God for?
- Think about the last time you disciplined your child. Was the focus on controlling their behavior or their heart issues? How will you address the same thing the next time it occurs from a gospel perspective?
- When was the last time you talked about sin, the cross and Jesus' paying the penalty for our sins with your child? What opportunities can you think of to talk about the gospel with your children this week?
